CAREFUL WORK,

intelligently done by skillful workers, and carried out under our personal supervision, insure

Perfect Style, Fit and Finish

in all made-to-order garments.

Glad to have you examine our handsome line of Overcoating, Suiting and Trouser Goods.

Special attention given to Dyeing, Pressing and Repairing Clothing of all kinds.

JOHN D. ROSIE.

Ladies' and Gent's Fine Tailoring, P. O. BUILDING, ARLINGTON.

Established 1826.

Arlington Insurance Agency

George Y. Wellington & Son, Agents.

Eight Mutual Companies, Ten Stock Companies. Office open daily and Wednesday and Saturday evenings.

Savings Bank Building, Arlington Avenue

Johnson's Arlington Express. J. H. EDWARD'S Prop.

Order Box Faneuil Hall Market. Bagginge checked to all depots and steamboat wharves or trans

We have the largest business and can give better results than any other express in Arlington. Telephone, 122-3 Arlington Two Trips Daily. First Team Due at 1.30 p. m.

Main Office, Monument View House.

ferred to destination.

If you have any Expressing, Piano or Furniture

Moving to do please give us a call.

Opp. Soldiers' Monument.

PICTURE FRAMES.

CRAYONS.

Litchfield Studio Arlington, Mass.

PHOTOS.

WATER COLORS.

H. B. JOHNSON.

Steam and Hot Water Heating,

Greenhouse Contractor, Steam Pump Repairer, etc.

PIPE AND FITTINGS FOR SALE AT BOSTON PRICES.

BROADWAY AND WINTER STS., ARLINGTON.

Boilers Re-tubed. Artesian Wells. Wind Mills. Rooting.

In all work contracted for the latest devices and most approved appliances are used an personal attention given to every job. Estimates furnished on contracts of any amount and sat faction guaranteed.

Sept*0,1y

Something Sweet and Tempting.

can be found at all times in our choice baking of ornamental and layer cakes fancy cakes, loaf and fancy cakes, fine pastry, delicious breads, rolls, biscuits and bake-stuffs of all kinds, that will suit the most epicurean palate. Don't waste time and money baking when we will serve you with goods baked from the highest grade materials at low

N. J. HARDY.

Baker and Caterer,

J. W. HARRINGTON,

Business established about 1858.

Practical House, Sign, and Decorative Painter.

All kinds of hard and soft woods finished in the latest and most improved manner. Kalsomining Paiinting in water colors. Graining, Glazing and Paper Hanging. Local agents for one of the argest wall paper houses in Boston. Drop me a card and I will call with samples. All sizes of glass on hand or procured at short notice. Sign writing a specialty. Personal supervision gives to all work and satisfaction guaranteed. I respectfully solicit a further share of your patronage

Shop, 450 Mass. ave., opp. Medford st.

Residence, 51 Lewis Ave.

Actual Last Sale of all

JAPANESE CHINA

On hand until April 1st.

YOUR GOLDEN OPPORTUNITY BEFORE WE PACK GOODS AWAY.

TILDEN'S

rlington Central Pharmacy ESTABLISHED 1853

"CHUMS."

"Drama and Dance," given under the music on Sunday will be as follows: auspices of the V. M. C. of Arlington, in the Town Hall on Saturday evening. Every seat in the hall was occupied; and, judging by the applause, the farce presented was highly appreciated. A farce in one act, entitled 'Chams' was given by the following cast:

Mr Breed, a Vermont squire, Barold A Yeames
Harry Breed, Harvard, his 80B.
Terror born begins begins begins to the community of the community Tom Burnham, leading lady of the Pi Eta theatre.
Howard I. Bennett
Flora Strong, Mr Breed's niece, Wm D Elwill
Mrs Breed.
Herbert W Kendall

The female parts were impersonated by members of the Y. M. C. in female apparel, and the laughter and appliance in petticoats was proof positive of the petticoats was proof positive of the Green was Gloria (ibi appreciation with which the farce was received. Mr. Herbert W. Kendall as Mrs. Breed, mother of Harry, made a charming old lady in gray wig, cambric house dress and white apron and seemed to thoroughly understand the art of darning stockings. Mr. William Elwell as Flora Strong, made his or her appearance upon the stage looking very girlish and sweet dressed in a stylish tailor-made suit and wearing a hat Easter carol. Lift up thy voice with sing which was a triumph of the millernary Easter carol. Oh the marvel, oh the gior art. Howard I.. Bennett, (Harry's chum), leading lady of the Pi Eta the atre, who, to make things right with the old folks, passed himself off as Harry's cousinf Hepsebah, was the star of the evening. His antics while arwith feet elevated on the table, smoking voices, under the direction of Miss Lucy tilda Jenkins, in a charming way. In cigarettes and enjoying himself as only J. Butler, organist: a Harvard fellow can. We heard all around us words of praise for Mr. Bennett. The other characters in the farce Veni creator, Mozart; were Harry Breed, impersonated by Mr. gand; recessional, Clark. Herbert L. Kidder, who acted his part in a very creditable manner. Mr. Kid- fitebor, Stearns; Beatus vir, laudate der was well recieved by the audience, pueri, Stearns; Laudate dominum, Harold A: Veames as Mr. Breed, a Ver | Stearns; Haec dies, Wiegand; Magnifimont squire looked and acted the typical Vermont farmer to perfection, and his matrimonial advice to Harry was Grath, Mrs. Gertrude Wing, sopranos: admirable. Those taking part deserve Mrs. Charles Beauchemin. contralto; great praise for the excellent manner in which they went through with their several parts, and much credit is due Dr. Clock for his able and efficient di-

HOMING CLUB

to enjoy this most delightful pastime.

A meeting of the Arlington Homing club was held at the residence of Mr. J. L. Murray, Mill street, on Monday evening, and a large gathering of the most prominent pigeon fanciers of New England was present. The following President, D. J. McCarty. Vice president, J. D. Irwin. Secretary, Thomas Sheahan. Treasurer, J. L. Murray.

The fourth annual fly of the club will be celebrated on Thursday, April 19, at Concord, where the birds will be liberated at 9.15 by Mr. Charles Rice. It is expected that this will be a very interesting race, as the best birds will le picked from the different lofts for the occasion, and record time is sure to be made. The membershp of this club is increasing yearly, for a more enjoyab e sport of flying carrier pigeons is hard o find. Information in regard to breeding and training these birds will be cheerfully given by Mr. J. L, Murray,

EASTER

For Easter Cut Flowers and Funeral Designs

W. W. Rawson's, Cor. Medford and Warren Sts.

EASTER MUSIC.

There was a large attendance at the At the several churches the Easter

CONGREGATIONAL

ARLINGTON, MASS., APRIL 14, 1900.

Christ our Passover. Do Aito solo. He shall wine away all tears, Anthem. The Lord is risen.

Mrs E. B. Wallace, soprano; Miss Edith Clark, contralto; Willis C. Haynes, tenor; T. R. Parris, basso and director; Miss J. L. Sprague, organist. ST. JOHN'S EPISCOPAL

The order of music at St. John's church, Academy street, tomorrow will e as follows:

Handel

Gloria in Excelsis decessional. The strife is o'er, the battle organ postlude in C major Afternoon at 4. organ voluntary. Grand offertoire in D essional. Come, ye faithful Magnificat Bunnett caster carol. O voice of the beloved Recessional. The strife is o'er alleluia Palestrina Organ voluntary. March, G major Miss Daisy A. Swadkins, organist; Miss : lara Johnson, violinist.

Easter Sunday will be observed with rayed in female attire called forth con- the usual services in St. Malachy's tinuous laughter, and the ease and church. Masses will be celebrated at grace with which he managed his skirts, 7 and 9 o'clock, and at 10.45 the solemn removed his hat and arranged his hair, high mass will take place, with Rev. J. would have done credit to an Arlington M. Mulcahy celebrant, Rev. A. J. Fitzbelle. It was intensely humorous to gerald deacon, and Rev. A. S. Malone see how quickly he would decend to sub-deacon. The sermon on the feastmasculine ways in spite of skirts, when- will be delivered by Rev. A. J. Fitzgerever Mrs. Breed or the squire would ald. Before and during the solemn serleave the room; at such times he would vice the following musical program will Horne. Mrs. Alma S. Cook represented sit in utter disregard of female dignity, be given by the church choir of thirty the leading character, that of Miss Ma-

> Processional, Le Blanc; Vidi aquam, Haec dies, Wie-

Vespers at 7.30 p. m.—Organ prelude, Domine, Stearns; Dixit dominus, concat, Stearns; Regina Coeli, Leonard; O salutaris, Abbot; Tantum ergo, Rose wig; postlude, Calkin. Miss Katie Mc. James Ford, tenor; James Donnelly and lames Powers, bassos

The first Parish (Unitarian) church, will hold Easter services as follows: at rection. A pleaseing feature was the guitar and mandolin solo, by Messrs 10,40 a. m. (five minutes earlier than Bennett and Kidder. The music was usual), when Rev. Frederic Gill will preach on "The Dying of Death." The by Cutter's orchestra, and after the close of the farce the floor was cleared vocal music will be furnished by the B. Worster, W. C. Butler, and A. L. Whitcomb, the program being: organ: "Festival Prelude," Dudley Buck; chant "I stand in the Great Forever," Worster; carol, "Easter Bells," Violette; response, the Lord's Prayer arranged by Barrett; anthem, "Alleuia for East-er," D. B. Brown; choir hymn, "There is Hovering About Me," Worster; two congregational hymns, and organ. 'Festival Postlude," H. W. Parker. The collection will be for the Unitarian members were elected officers for the Church Extension Society of Boston and vicinity. At 4 p. m. the Sunday school will hold an Easter service in the church. Master Gerald Lambert, boy soprano, will sing three solos, ten

(Continued on pages.)

Office of Henry W. Savage. By Albert Ammann, Auctioneer, 7 Pemberton square, Boston

CHOICE

ARLINGTON

Saturday, April 21, at 2.30 o'clock

PUBLIC AUCTION

fine house lots, containing from 400 to 7000 sq. ft., each situated on Mass. avenue, at junction of Lowell street, Arlington Helghts. Also double dwelling house, Nos. 11 and 13 Lowell street, Arling 18 rooms, 2 baths, 2 furnaces, and conveniences, together with 8172 sq. ft. of land.

Tuesday, April 24, PUBLIC AUCTION

fine house lots, containing from 4000 to 8000 sq. ft., each situated on Draper, Davis and Orient avenues, overlooking Mystic lake. Wednesday, April 25 P. M.

PUBLIC AUCTION 65,000 divided into lots located within

For further particulars apply to the auction-Pemberton square, Boston,

Bank building, Arlington.

BICYCLES

ᢜቚቝቚቚቚቚቚቚቚቚቚቚቚቚቚቚቚቚቚቚቚቚቚቚቚቚቚቚ

32 MODELS

CASH OR INSTALMENT,

RANGING FROM $22.00 to $75.00.

AT MOSELEY'S CYCLE AGENCY.

FOWLE BLOCK.

REPAIRING AND RENTING.

"THE LADIES OF CRANFORD."

泰森安泰泰泰泰泰泰泰泰泰泰泰泰泰泰泰泰泰泰

A Grand And Brilliant Success, Reflecting Great Credit on The Management.

The entertainment given in the Town | grip to her own until the clergyman auspices of the Arlington Historical audience did not have the privilege of society, was a brilliant success. The catching sight of the necessarily happy audience represented the society life of husbands, still we silently congratulated the town. The play, "The ladies of them all the same on their choice, for Cranford," in three acts, was rendered in an admirable way, and much to the Martha, or both of them, if the law aldelight of the crowded house present. Cranford is a quiet English town, where few of the male persuasion were ever seen, they all being either at sea or in the military service, so that when a real live man did make his appearance in Cranford he caused no little excitement among those of the opposite sex. The play is the outcome of the little book written by Mrs. Gaskell, and arranged for the stage by Mrs. Mary B. the first place Mrs. Cook, in her own personality, has a charming presence. Witska; Missa, pro pace, La Hache; She has a voice of peculiar sweetness and rare intonation. Her every movement upon the stage is that of accomplished grace. Mrs. Cook draws in every way, so that she has her audience Jennie, Little James, Little Dick the dog, close about her. As "the rector's daughter" she was a brilliant feature of the evening. Miss Nina Winn, as Miss Mary Smith, displayed an intelligent understanding of her part, and rendered it in a pleasing way. Miss Helen G. Damon, who is invariably much at home on the stage, made the biggest kind of a score as Miss Jessie Brown. Miss Damon has that graceful ease which serves her on all occasions as a most favorable introduction. She lends interest to her acting both through voice and movement. Her entire bear- ing: ing on the stage is that of natural and Hon & Mrs J Q A Brac- Miss Agnes Damon "Vida Damon" fordancing, a large number remaining Ladies Schubert Quartette of Boston, cultured grace. Her solos, "Annie consisting of Misses M. A. Magoon, J. Laurie" and "Jock o' Hazeldean" were rendered in a taking way. Miss Corto the play-going world, in her character as Miss Betty Barker, evinced all that skill and tact which belong to the artist. Miss Macdonald, who is Mrs Wade of this town, was a conspicuous factor in the success of the evening Miss Louisa R. Warren, who personated Miss Pole, was in every way true to the part she so well took. Her acting was much enjoyed, as was also that of Miss Ellen W. Hodgdon, who played the character of Mrs. Forrester. Both Miss Warren and Miss Hodgdon were happy in their parts. Mrs. Emma M. Harris as the Hon. Mrs. Jamieson, the recog nized society leader in Cranford, and a sister-in-law of the Earl of Gleumire, acted with all that becoming diguity which so well befitted her social posttion. The part that Mrs. Harris so welrepresented was a pronounced factor of the pray. Miss Alice W. Homer, as Martha, maid to Miss Jenkins, filled the uill in a delightful and enjoyable way. the country woman, Mis. Purkis, re presented by Mrs. Grace L. Whittemore, wes admi.ably done. Miss Lucy M.

> who were customers at the tea counter. The stage evidently had *been arranged and fitted by those who well understood how to effectively interpret the play. Although, as we have said, men were seldom seen in Cranford, still in spite of this unfortunate fact, Miss Jessie Brown and Martha, maid to Miss Jenkins, each found a man, and not so easily scared as Miss Pole, they each held with tenacious

Prescott, as Peggy, was the attractive maid to Miss Barker. We could well understand through her vivacious move ments about the stage how one might easily "fall in love with the maid."

And last but not least of those who made an attractive and pleasing appearance upon the stage were Dorothy Bullard, Edith N. Winn and Arthur B. Peirce, hall on Wednesday evening, under the had securely "tied the knot." The who would not have married Jessie or

A group of pretty young ladies acted as ushers. They were the following: The Misses Wellington, Agnes Damon, Lillian Peck, Helen Taft, Laura Fessenden, Elsie Parker, Grace Parker, Ethel Homer and Mrs. Stuart Allen. Wiggins' orchestra furnished the music. There was many a rich costume of the olden time to be seen in the audience. The George and Martha Washingtons were much in evidence. The following were the characters represented in the play:

Miss Matilda Jenkins. Miss Mary Smith, Miss Jessie Brown, Miss Pole, Mrs Forrester
Miss Batty Barker,
The Hon Mrs Jamie
Martha,

Alma S Cook Nina L Winn Helen G Damon Louisa R Warren Ellen W Hodgdon Cordelia Maedonald Emma M Harris Alice W Homer Lucy M Prescott Grace L Whittemore Edith N Winn Dorothy Bullard

Arthur B Peirce Richard Homer

Lillian Peck Helen Taft Laura Fessenden

E Brooks
Lacie Hunting
Carrie Hunting
Nettie Baston
Annie Baston
Georgia Hill

The old-fashioned bouquet was made up at W. W. Rawson's florai office.

The old fashioned dance following the play reminded one of the days of auld lang syne. The managers of the dance were: W. A. Peirce, H. H. Homer, F. Y. Wellington, W. A. Taft, W. A. Muller, O. H. Whittemore, W. W. Rawson, W. N. Winn, H. S. Adams and H. J.

Among those present were the follow-

Rev & Mrs S C Bush-Rev Frederic Gill

" D T Percy
" L L Pierce
" C A Dehnett
Prof & Mrs P Schwamb

Mr & Mrs W H N Fran-Mr&Mrs E S Farmer W A Taft
W A Muller
Whittemore
W N Winn
H S Adams
G W W Sears
G M Diamond S A Fowle, Jr H B Pierce

Annie Baston
Georgia Hill
Josephine Fowle
Maria Hill
Je LeBarón
Mary Schouler
Susie Winn
Marion Cushman
Clara Taft
Jennie Gott
Theresa Hardy
Phelps
Alberta Bott
Grace Parker
Elsie Parker
Ethel Homer
E L Wellington
As Wellington
May Hardy
Nellie Hardy
Nellie Hardy
Nellie Sumter
A J Newson
Scott S Allen R T Hardy R T Hardy C H Doughty T schevant E Holt Wellington B A Norton T r A I en C W Ailen H Pelose W K Cook W T Foster W H itatle N L McKay W Proctor A J Newton Scott J L Sprague Helen Wood Annie Wood Laura Davis Margery Coleman Llizzie Dav

N L McKay
W Proctor
No ris
S F Hicks
W'B Wood
J H Hardy, J
M E Moore
W G Rice
W L Hill
WW Hodgdor
T J'hara
J J Hewes
F H reavody
E L Churchid
H W Bullard
W A roster
W H Pattic
D Buttrick
H Hornblowe

H G Porter
W A Hardy
J A Bailey
C H Stevens
L L Pierce
G A Teele
M N Rice
G Allen
H D Dodge
E L Parker
E T Wilder
Crosby
Swan

" Crosby
Mrs Jas Swan
" G D Turts
" W E Richardson
" G P Sprague
" Parker H Foster
" T J Robbins
" S G Damon
" G S Cushman
" Walker

Walker S A Sumter H A Freeman Jacobs Jacobs Davis M Coleman J H Hardy Varney

Litzie Day

Lizzie Day

E G Fowle

Reed

Alice Rawson

Florence Hicks

Calife Varney

Angle Adams

Edith Allen

L Learned

Helen Wyman

B Devereaux

Weeks

A M Weeks

Mr A J Wellington

Geo r Winn

Geo r Winn

Geo W Lane

Matthew Rowe

H J Hardy

E D Parker

E T Horublower

Geo Hill

Henry J Locke

James Baston

Chester Peck

James P Parmenter

W F Homer

Howard Turner

W F Homer

G B C Rugg

E Everett Turner

G B C Rugg

E Everett Turner

E Illis Wood

Brown

Harold Yeames

Arthur E Crosby

Harry Rice

Charles Rice

Horace Fessenden

W W Rawson

Hugh O'Neil

John Plummer

Thorning Woods

R L Bacon

W Winn

Without

MRS.

Crockery, Glass, China and Tin Ware, Garden Implemes ing Pots, etc. etc., at

MASSACHUSSETTS AVE

and Kitchen Furnishing HAS OPENED WITH A FULL LINE OF

ARLINGTON ENTERPRISE

ublished every Saturday morning at No. 620 Massachusetts avenue. -1.00 a year, in advance; Single copies, 2cents

F. H. GRAY. PUBLISHER. WILSON PALMER, EDITOR

ADVERTISING RATES.

1 wk. 2 wks. 1 mo. 3 mos. 6 mos. 1 y linch, 75c. $1.00 $1.50 $.2.50 $4.00 $6.6 Additional inches at same ratio Advertisements placed in the local colusm

Help and situation wants, for sale, to let. etc., 121-2 cents per line; nothing taken less than two lines.

THE GLAD EASTER TIME.

The glad, joyous Easter time comes down to us from the earlier days. It corresponds with the Passoyer of the Jews, which in King James' version of the Bible, is called once by the name of Easter. The name appears several times in earlier versions. While formerly it was observed only by the Greek, Roman Catholic, Episcopal and Lutheran churches, it has now come to be regarded more or less by the entire christian world. It was at first known as "the great day." The several denominations do not now long delay in attempting to prove in a mathematical, logical way that Christ lay in the grave for three days and three nights and on the third day rose therefrom, although the so-called evangelical world believes the above as a fundamental fact. The Easter day, however, accomplishes its purpose when it has taught men and women everywhere that there is for us all a risen life, which, coming into our own individual being, makes us over anew. It isn't the dead Christ who is interesting and instructive sermon and partial growth of your half-made to resurrect us. It is the living Christ with whom we have to do. It is that ist church on the "Fatherhood of God the monkey and that his growth ceased grave with the "stone rolled away" that and the brotherhood of man." The at nearly the same moment that he got "brings life and immortality to light."

The delightful announcement that the that is still."

doing its utmost, and even then this glory of God. There were two fatal "king of terrors" cannot separate us errors in such a belief. In the first from those we love. It is the ascended place, God's glory could not be aug-Lord and not the dead Christ in whom mented or magnified by the loss of any is our hope and our life. May the of his children, and in the second place, Easter morning bring to Arlington not no sane man would be willing to suffer only the bud and bloom of the earlier throughout eternity even for the glory season, but may it bring to her that life of God himself. But happily for us all, of aspiration which reaches up to and God does not require it and man does takes in that life of lives which neither not wish it. Suffering and punishment death nor the grave could hold within must in the very nature of things be the dress B., this office. its grasp.

"Tomb, thou shalt not hold him longer: Death is strong, but Life is stronger; Stronger than the dark, the light; Stronger than the wrong, the right; Faith and Hope triumphant say Christ will rise on Easter Day."

PATRIOTS' DAY.

in a peculiar way a legacy to New England. The day had its birth almost ciation of the faith of the Universalist within hand's reach of where we are denomination. writing this editorial. The redcoats marched through the main thoroughfare of Arlington. These grounds as well as those in Lexington were baptized and consecrated with the blood of our fathers. The story of Lexington has been told so often that we need not repeat it. But the lesson, however, of that first heroic struggle of the American revolution needs to be repeated and re-repeated so long as the years succeed each other. This individual liberty which we enjoy was secured at a fearful cost. Men and women in those earlier days staked their all that freedom should have her rightful sway. With them it was either die or gloriously succeed in their demand for independence.

The thought we have in mind at this writing is this: Are we, the children, living up to the high privileges fortunately secured to us by that long revo lutionary struggle? Is our definition of individual liberty the same as that given in 1775? Haven't we somewhat cut loose from the declarations made in 1776, and which were emphasized and underlined by the death of many a hero? It is apparent on every side that our American politics are not what they were in those primitive days. Who has ever read in all history that George shington planned and plotted for a term in the executive office? s ever hinted that in those days mal honors were in any in-Led? It is only of com-gotten not a little apart from the original plan of the founders of this republic, W. Lane, president of the water combut fortunately not so far that we may not retrace our steps. What the American people should do, and do at once, is the board of water commission, so our to strangle to the death all partisanship. While we recognize that there must be intelligent organization in all effective work, there should be no "bossism." How do you suppose Tom Platt and Richard Croker would have fared had they lived in Washington's day? It is a scandalous fact that in this year of our Lord, 1900, politics have become an article of merchandise, so that men buy and sell as they are able. At this very moment it is "each man for hingelf, while the devil takes the hindermost.' If you don't believe it, just asked Mc-Kinley, Bryan and Dewey.

Well, we are glad that the 19th of April and the 17th of June and the 4th of July get round to us once a year. The above are days when we can look over the books as they were formerly kept. Let us on Thursday of next week, Patriots' day, celebrate with a vim, and with the understanding that whatever others may do Arlington shall ever remain true to the original intent of the fathers. To us who live under the shadow of Lexington and Bunker Hill, there should be no loosening of our grip on the simple fundamentals of that liberty which has been bequeathed to preached by the pastor of the Universaland in keeping with good common ging the pardon of the monkey for say-Easter time brings us is, that all around sense. While Mr. Fister believes in ing this much. But a man, a whole our earthly life there are ascended lives the law of retribution, as does his de- man, we admire. Who does not? which bear us royal companionship, nomination, still he does not question Samuel did, or otherwise he would The story of the resurrection brings the that God in his own time will bring the never have said "Quit yourselves like two worlds in touch. No longer is there whole human family to himself. How men." any real dividing line which keeps us well we remember the day that one of apart from the immortals. The resur- Universalist faith was to be avoided in rected life of Christ teaches, if it teaches the little country town where we resided anything, that the life "beyond" and when a boy. We now have in mind one the life here are one and inseparable. of that belief, a most excellent man, al-It takes the two worlds to make up the most a neighbor of ours, and yet all the unit of our reckoning. It is not at the good people of the town regarded him grave where Christ lay that we catch as being at a hopless distance from the our inspiration. It is the ascended life fold. In those days it was "creed" that that must come to us that we too may had much to do with one's salvation. A ascend. It isn't so much the literal supreme, rigid justice was then preached truth which so many claim to teach as from the pulpit. An overshadowing it is the spiritual lesson that is to make love at that time hardly entered as a us alive. It isn't the husks but "the factor into the religious thought of the full corn in the eat" that we need and community. Those fathers and mothers must have. It is a thought full of all of the earlier years were devout christian comfort that Christ through his ascended men and women, and although sainted and descended life has made simple and now, we do wish they could have lived clear the magnificent and consoling in these days when God has been so retruth that our friends on "the other vealed as a God of love. The fundashore" may and do come to us here to mental mistake that was made a half keep us company. It is an unspeakable century ago was this, namely: While Representatives. joy to feel that you may come into the God was infinitely exalted in all that real, living presence and life of that pertains to justice, man was infinitely dear friend who has triumphantly arisen debased. We counted ourselves as -and this we may all do. We may feel "worms of the dust," and there was "no again "the touch of a vanished hand," good thing in us." It was formerly beand again hear "the sound of a voice lieved that one should be willing to suffer eternal banishment from God, The Easter time teaches us that death provided such banishment was, for the sequence of a broken law. But in spite of this fact, God is the loving father of every child he has created.

"THE FATHERHOOD OF GOD."

The Universalist denomination has which emphasizes that infinite love which takes in the whole human family. Patriots' day. or the 19th of April, is Mr. Fister on Sunday morning gave a clear and happy declaration and enun-

IMPORTANT HEARING.

An important hearing will be had on Tuesday of next week, April 17th, at ten o, clock a. m., at the office of the railroad commissioners, 20 Beacon st., Boston. The meeting is on behalf of the remonstrants against the stopping of express trains at West Somerville. More than five hundred citizens of Arlington. Lexington and Bedford and other towns served by express trains which do not stop between Arlington and Boston, have signed remonstrances which have been filed with the railroad commisioners. This matter is of especial importance to Arlington, and to its nearly seven hundred passengers to and from Boston. It is not only important to the business man that he gets to his office, but more especially important that he gets there on time. Arlington is no small factor in the business and professional life of Boston, and as a residential annex of the city, she cannot be left out of the reckoning. So there is every reason why every business man in Arlington should be present at the meeting on Tuesday morning next at 20 Beacon street, aud give his reasons why our West Somerville. The Hon. James A. Bailey Jr. will conduct the hearing for the remoustrants.

A CORRECTION.

Whenever we find ourselves wrong in has been waged for any statement made or implied in the territorial acquisition. We surely have Enterprise, we lose no time in setting ourselves right. A line from Mr. Geo. mission, informs us that the watering of the public streets is not in charge of pleasent reprimand of that honorable board in our last issue for the clouds of dust that blinded us, was misplaced. We beg pardon of the water commissioners for the mistake unwittingly made. Well, our streets are at last watered, and as we have not the privilege of thanking the water commission for so great a favor, we do not hesitate to thank the Lord.

BE A MAN.

The above is what Samuel meant that they are being prepared by going to one extreme, suddenly to go to the when he said "Quit yourselves like other. Such shift of emotion is not so men." To be a man is greater than to To be a man is greater than to be a king. It begets in us a feeling of supreme disgust to see one of the masculine persuasion acting the part of "all things unto all men," and in other ways acting the coward. We have an inexpressible hatred for the sneak. We mean that semblance of a man who always meets you with a smile, and with a "yes, yes," and then who, the moment your back is turned, agrees with the other fellow. And yet there is neither nook nor corner in all the wide world where you will not find these abortions of humanity. You can always track them through their slimy ways. Their clammy hand-shake and sanctimonious conversation send a thrill through the stoutest heart. God made men, so we We listened on Sunday morning to an do not pretend to account for the origin man. It must be that he started from sermon impressed us as being logical his start. We feel very much like beg-

EDITORIAL NOTES

Mrs. Dewey says she didn't do it.

The Paris exposition opens today.

May it be a bright and joyous Easter.

New spring hats and clothing are in order for tomorrow.

It is very evident that the British-Boer war is not over vet.

Queen Victoria has made a score in calling that last great-grandson Patrick.

One-cent fares in the suburbs met with defeat yesterday in the House of

DIED

HURLEY.—In Ariington, April 11, Timothy Hurley aged 38 years. HALL.—At Arlington Heights, April 7, Sara Brooks Hall aged 23 years. CLOCK.-in Arlington, April 10. Josephine wife of Frank H. Clock aged 41 years. COOK.—In Arlington, April 9, Charles E. Cook aged 34 years and 9 months.

GRANBURG.—In Arlington, April 9, wilma H. Granburg aged 14 years.

WANTED,

For a few hours every day, a girl for general house work. Enquire at 5 Devereaux street, off Chapman street.

FOR SALE.

done and is doing much in educating No. 22 Mill street, Arlington, Mass. Will put men and women in that religious faith same in complete order. Apply for terms to A. J. Bastine, 19 Warren street, New York.

HOUSE TO LET.

Eight rooms and bath, all modern convenieuces; 3 minutes to steam or electric cars, post office, stores and schools. Inquire of L. C. Tyler.

TO LET,

A first-class tenement with all modern improvements and up-to-date in every way; connected with sewer. Good party can secure it for 2 months at 1-2 price for 2 months. Apply to G. W. Kenty, 1428 Mass, ave.

W. G. KIMBALL,

Contractor and Builder,

Shop, 1003 Mass. ave.

T. M. CANNIFF Hairdresser,

Enterprise $1.00

"WHO IS THIS?" The hymns, the scripture, and the ermon, were suitable to Palm Sunday on Sunday night at the Baptist church. The attendance was good, and the service an earnest one. Dr. Watson took for his text Matt. 21: 10: "And when he was come into Jerusalem, the whole city was moved, saying, 'Who is This'?" In outline the preacher said, that you would almost take this welcome of Christ in the city to mean abiding gladness, if you did not remember that on Friday following he was to be crucified between two thieves. There were but four days between the two popular cries, "Hosanna!" and "Away with him!" People can be greatly and unanimously moved by some passing tumult or commotion, and it may not mean very much. Indeed it may only mean as it did here, strength as of superficial feeling. really strong nations have been marked more by self control than by demonstrative emotion. Ancient Rome had no place in its domain for mobst they were not trusted for good, nor allowed to work evil. It comes out frequently in its scripture how wholesome was the fear even in the distant colonies, of being "called in question" by the rulers, for a general demonstration or tumult. John Ruskin contrasts the fundamental difference in the German and the Frenchman, as he observes them in an art gallery. The German, quite self-contained, his admiration deep, but silent, before the noblest canvas. The Frenchman passionately expressive in both voice and jesture. You might see the same difference in contrasting the Frenchman and the Briton, whether as mobs or as individuals. Hence London is the strong, safe capital of a people swayed by law, and Paris the volatile and hazardous center of a nation proverbially at the mercy of tumultuous passion. It is only the people like the Romans or the Britons, who purpose the economy of their passion, that can run a mighty race of more than a thousand years. Jesus seemed constantly to be dodging great crowds and avoiding tumults. He seemed not to look for his kingdom in that sort of thing. No one better than he, more justly estimated the great movement of applause and affection that passed over the city, as he rode through it, the streets strewn with palm branches and garments and hearing the eager enquiry: "Who is This?.. He but a few hours since had wept over the city, as from the shoulder of a hill he gazed upon its beauty. He had not wept when to his deciples he had foretold all the tragedy of sorrow and death that was hastening upon him: neither did he weep when his back to the smiters, his cheeks to them that plucked off the hair, and hid not his face from shame and spitting. "The scourge, the nails, the spear thrust, brought no tears for himself: Hacks & Carriages but for the city, just ready to break out in passionate praise and affection for him, he wept. There is food for thought in that. It raises a practical question.
What is the welcome that Jesus expects and desires? That is the question raised. Is Jesus getting the Jerusalem For Funerals, Weddings, Evenwelcome, or that which both he and his apostles sought as they were discipling men? It cannot be denied that Jesus to day has abundant hospitality of a very general and indefinite sort. He gets some that is very rhapsodical, and much that is almost patronizing. He gets some that is deep and real, and much that is superficial and ready suddenly to change into almost anything. He gets some of a still stranger quality: it can be profoundly at peace with that upon which he has declared open war. We have big long words nowadays for describing things in bulk, and we are at tracted most by the wholesale niethod of achieving them. We have big "movements" that spend themselves more in bigness than in permanence. We have great welcomes, but they only serve to show our own lack of greatness. Adthat reaction was inevitable, and of course that reaction was overdone. Keen observers are charging the two strong nations with becoming "Frenchy"— England and America. They point to England's mercurial ups and downs of depression and exultation during this little Boer war, and to our own spasms of alternating praise and blame for our heroes. This may be evidence that we are developing more of general sensitive feeling than of individual conviction. I am not condemning emotion. That is too precious and too scarce. The best cause in the world is suffering for lack of it. The church of God is too cold almost frozen to death. But we do no want the Jerusalem emotion, but something more deep and abiding. The apostolic quality was better, because it was something that fired the very bones and was intensified by trial and time Strange enough, it was not a great and popular uprising that produced the apostolic welcome of Jesus. Indeed the

This fact brings close at hand the secret of the kingdom. It is, that the individual welome of Jesus is the one that he desires and expects. The welcome of Jesus is a matter between each heart and the saviour. He began calling his disciples one by one, and has continued the method ever since. He does not call men in crowds or bless them in bulk. He does not build his church on waves of popular feeling. The foundation stones are individual souls, each one confessing his Lord him-self and alone. "Verily, I say unto you, thou art Peter, and upon this rock will I build my church, and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it." But Peter had just uttered his magnificent confession of faith in him as "the Christ, the son of the living God." That is it. That is the sort of hospitality for the Lord. Each heart voluntarily making room for him. Sin going out by repentance, Christ coming in by faith. That experience makes the rock like character. It trusts and is trusted. When Christ is upon the throne of the spiritual affections emption is natural and popular uprising was against it and sought to prevent it.

ual affections, emotion is natural and safe. The world hungers for that kind. It is the joy of the Lord, strong and self-controlled. It will steady, strengthen and sweeten a whole city or town Just as Kidderminster was blessed be cause Richard Baxter preached it there express trains should make no stop at 943 Mass. ave., Arlington when the stranger passing through the express trains should make no stop at streets could hear either sweet songs of praise or voice of prayer in every house. When each home has its own altar on which the vestal flame burns, and each heart its own fire that never smoulders or dies out, Christ has become a permanent guest, and only heaven itself can give us a deeper peace and joy than that which the welcomed Lord brings into heart, home, church and town.

Window Screen and Screen Door Manufacturers Screen repairing a specialty. Wall Paper and Hanging, Room Mouldings, Window Shades and Inside Painting. Picture Framing, Furniture Repairing and Repolishing. General House Work done in first-class manner. Office and Factory.

1033 Mass. avenue, Arlington.

ROCHESTER

BICYCLES.

R. DANIELS,

606 Mass. Avenue, Arlington.

All the leading styles in collars, cuffs, ties, pins, etc.

A. L. BACON. and Contractor. Mason

All Kinds of

Jobbing, Whitening, Fire Places and Boile Settings.

LOCKER 58 MYSTIC. Lock Box 45, Arlington Telephone 133-3.

Order Box at Peirce & Winn Co.

RESIDENCE, CCR. MYSTIC STREET AND DAVIS AVENUE.

Peirce & Winn Co

Coals, Wood, Hay, Straw Grain, Lime, Cement, Plaster,

Hair, Fertilizers, Sand, Drain and Sewer Pipes, etc.

Teaming Pillsb.ry Flour, New England Gas and Coke Co's Coke

Arlington, Arlington He ghts, and Lexington Post-office Box B. Arlington

JOHN F. NOLAN & CO., RUBBER-TIRED

FURNISHED

ng Parties, etc.

RESIDENCE: 58 WARREN STREET.

Wm. P. Schwamb & Bro., J. E. LANGEN HAIRDRESSER.

Cor, Mass. Ave. and Mystic St.

Children's hair cutting a spec-

Arlington Sea Food Market

Telephone 56-5.

Phenomenal Success. NO. 311 BROADWAY.

opp. Soldiers' Monument.

One of the cleanest markets in the state.

G. W. RUSSELL.

Arlington House.

Arlington, Mass.

J. C. RAUCH, Proprietor.

Accommodations for transients and table boarders. Stable connected. Telephone 56-2. Oct7 1y

WOOD BROS. EXPRESS

which way you happen to be going, and guarantee you just as good a job as if you were always moving,

Piano and Furniture Moving. We also have an express that runs too end from Boston daily, that will call for your parcels and deliver them promptly Boston Offices—36 Court Sq., 48 Chatham St.; rder box, Faneuil Hall Sq. Arlington Offices—Cushing's Store at Heights, Fown Hall corner Henderson St.

Residence at 677 Mass. avenue.

L. C. TYLER. Dealer in

Boots, Shoes and Rubbers

Agent for the celebrated Queen Quality Shoes for ladies and the Crawford Shoe for men, the Misses' and children's school shoe not forgotten. Gent's furnishing goods, gloves, mittens, trunks and bags. 624 MASS. AV.

The ONLY GRADUATE in Pharmacy in Arlington is MINER L. H. LEAVITT,

Cor. MASS, AVENUE and MYSTIC ST., and is the place where prescriptions of all descriptions can be properly compounded.

George A. Law,

Hack and Livery Stable,

Mass. Ave., Arlington

Having practically rebuilt the inside of my stable, and added ten new stalls, I am now prepared to take new boarders. I secure first class board and right prices. Teams sent and called for.

WETHERBEE BROS.. 480 Mass. avenue.

(Successors to S. F. Dean)

We are local agents for the Rambler, Algonquin, White and Pacific ranging in price from $25 to $50.

Wheels called for and put in thorough order Keys fittel, locks capaired, and fine mechanica work of all kinds.

SPECIAL. Fine watch, clock and jewelry repairing by Ivers L. Wetherbee, late with A Stowell & Co., Boston. feb17

ROBBINS SPRING HOTEL

Arlington, Mass.

The most healthful and delightful winter home in the north. Conveneint to trains and electrics. Commands a magnificent view. Cuisine and service unsurpassed. Carriages always at Robbins road. Telephones, billiard and pool rooms, bowling alleys, golf links, music

Terms: $3 per day, $12 to $20 per week,

Telephone, 155-4 Arlington

L. B. WILLIAMS, Manager.

Belmont Crystal Spring Water BELMONT, MASS.

D. L. TAPPAN, Prop. 269 Mass. Ave., Arlington TELEPHONE CONNECTION.

WILLIAM WHYTAL, Finance Block, C. A. CUSHING, Arlington Heights, YERXA & YERXA, Post-office Block

Sell Belmont Crystal Spring Water. Orders by mail or telephone will receive prompt attention. Orders taken at H. A. Perham's Drug Store, P. O. Block, will receive immediate attention.

Horse Goods!

in fine Harnesses, Blankets, Linen Sheets, Feed Bags, Curry Combs and brushes, Snap Chains, Trace Bits, Cellar Pads, Collars, and everything that is necessary for your animal for stable or outdoor use we have in the latest styles, and with all the new improvements. Our stock of harness and horse hardware is complete.

Arlington Harness Co, Fowle's Block, Arlington

ARLINGTON NEWS.

The stores close all day the 19th.

Little old folks' concert April 26.

Caterer Hardy catered to 1200 Wed-

Special meeting of A. V. F. A. Tuesday evening.

Moseley's cycle agency is to keep open on the 19th.

The Litchfield studio will be open on the 19th for sittings.

On the evening of April 19th there will be a whist party in G. A. R. Hall.

When you go to the train Monday, stop and get a "big brother" free at

Thanks to the sprinkler for dustless

Eureka made a good showing Wednesday evening, throwing a stream of some 200 feet. Good.

Mrs. Herbert Winn of Worcester, spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gott.

The subject of the Rev. Mr. Bushnell's sermon on Easter morning will be the "Empty Tomb. Remember the concert of the little old folks to be held at the Universalist church, Thursday evening, April 26. Camp 45, S. of V., meets Tuesday evening in G. A. R. Hall. Capt. Stevens desires a full attendance of members.

Mr. Samuel H. Smith of 41 Academy street, returned on Tuesday from his visit of several weeks in the south.

Dr. and Mrs. Young are to be con-gratulated on the arrival of a daughter which made its appearance on Monday.

The poetical lines from our young friend "W. H. F." which we publish in another column tells of the spring

The Ida F. Buttler Rebekah Lodge

will be one year old on Monday. The lodge is to celebrate this first anniver-The Arlington college boys, and the

Arlington college girls are enjoying their Easter vacation at their respective

Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. Bullard attended the concert given on Monday evening by Madame Schiller in Association hall, Boston. The Enterprise is glad to learn that her usual health.

At the Pleasant st Congregational church there will be an Easter service under the management of Mr. Hilliard supt. of the Sunday school.

The public schools opened their spring and closing session of the school year with full numbers on Monday, after a pleasant vacation of one week.

Remember that the Easter musical service at the Baptist church comes in the evening, on account of the special Baptismal service in the moring.

A conference of the Mass. Total Ab stinence society in Mechanics' hall, Woburn, Wednesday afternoon, and all Arlington members are invited to be

Miss Newton of the Robbins library and her assistant, Miss Whittemore, were present last week at the opening of the new library building in Providence, R. I.

To day the High School Base Ball team plays its first game of the season at

Mr. and Mrs. Walter B. Henderson and family of Pleasant street place, went on Thursday to their summer home in Wayland, where they will remain until the Autumn.

Arbor day in this state comes each year on the last Saturday in April. This He should no longer attempt to call year it falls on the 28th. In setting out them in crowds, or try to bless them in shrub and tree, we can well afford to pass by Academy and Pleasant streets.

The only man in Cranford smoked a "big brother." Call Monday and get one free at Whittemore's drug store.

Saturday last was an interesting day for Lexington, for their it was that for the first time the electric car made its way through the town. On Sunday two thousand passengers went over the in the hall of Abraham Lincoln Post 11,

Somewhere about one hundred and fifty dollars were made above expenses at the entertainment given in the Town hall on Wednesday evening. The Historical society is to be congratulated on its success.

Caterer Hardy served refreshments in his best style on Wednesday evening to

Mr. R. W. LeBaron has been in Lewtesting the new fire alarm whistle his

The Misses Wellington returned on Tuesday morning from a delightful on Thursdey afternoon and evening.
visit of a week in Washington, Baltimore and New York city. While at the national capital they visited Congress in session, took in that magnificent library, went to the top of the monument, and otherwise "did" the city.

lively about town in the fire line. On returning from the brush fire back of

You can get a nice smoke free Monday if you ask for a "big brother" at Whittemore's.

of the town was kept busy last Sunday fighting brush fires.

Dr. F. H. Clock and his sons have the heartfelt sympathy of this community in the loss of a devoted and loving wife and mother. Mrs. Clock has been a terrible sufferer for years with cancer in the head and death came to relieve her suffering Tuesday morning.

A communication from a prominent clergyman of the Town on a much discussed matter has been received by us. Its publication however, we have been obliged to defer to a later issue on account of the crowded condition of our columns this week

Do not forget the hearing to be had at the office of the railroad commisioners on Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock, at 20 Beacon street Boston. Let every Arlington business man be present if streets. But didn't we, with others, possible. We want no stopping of our suffer last week? out for Boston.'

> Let every man of us shut up shop on Thursday of next week April 19th, chosen to fill the respective vacancies. unfurl to the breeze the stars and stripes and set agoing our brass bands and shoot our biggest guns. "Independence now and Forever," was born on April chell, the first president of the associa-19th 1775. So with hats high in air let tion, who lives in Fitchburg, was read, us shout our loudest.

Veritas Lodge U. O. of I. O. L. held most enjoyable whist party on Monday evening. 1st ladies prize was won by Mrs. Reed of Roxbury; 2nd prize. Miss Ewing of Roxbury; 3rd prize, Mrs. Bowman of Arlington. 1st gents, Mr. Maynard of Roxbury; 2nd, Mr. Bowman of Arlington; 3rd, Mrs

Last Saturday Mr. L. E. Greene sold out his business to Mrs. Margaret Dale. This week Mrs. Dale has been adding to the stock, so that when the new counter in the center of the store is completed and the goods displayed our citizens will have as fine a line to purchase from as one could ask for, eye on the advertisement each week.

Mr. W. H. N. Francis had the rehear sals in charge of the play so successfully given in the Town hall on Wednesday evening; and it was for the above reason that he was called to the stage that he might recieve the recognition and applause of the audience. Mr. Francis applause of the audience. Mr. Francis has become the central figure in all amateur acting in Arlington.

Chemical I had a spread of steamed clams and everything which goes to make a clam supper a success on Tuesday evening, winding up with cigars. The boys of the chemical surprised the members of Hose 2 by inviting them to participate. All present had a highly enjoyable time. An entertainment of Mrs. T. J. Robinson who has been ill phonograph selections, singing, etc., for several weeks, is now recovering were special features.

> Henry A. Kidder of the Boston Herald, whose residence is at 17 Addison st. presided at the silver anniversary sion of the grand lodge, Knights of Hon-or, held in Boston on Wednesday. On Wednesday evening the grand officers gave a dinner to Supreme Reporter B. F. Nelson of St. Louis. The dinner was held at Young's hotel. It was attended by 30 of the grand officers.

> Everybody is smoking the "big broth-You can get one free. Monday at Whittemore's pharmacy Selectman Farmer called up Officer Hooley Thursday evening by phone and stated that James DeCoursey of Lexington had fallen from a team and was badly injured. Officers Hooley and Duffy. accompanied by Mr. Charles Hartwill went for the injured man and carried him on Mr. Hartwell's team to the station. The scalp was badly torn and there was also a bad cut under the chin. Dr. Keegan dressed the wounds and Officer Duffy accompanied him home.

ued the method ever since. He does cordially welcome to these services. not call men in crowds, or bless them in bulk." In no way different should the teacher of our public schools make himself known to his pupils. He too should call his deciples one by one. them in crowds, or try to bless them in a wholesale way. Christ made straight for the inividual life, and so should we both in the family and in the school.

noon. The funeral services were held music will be rendered: thousand passengers went over the road.

The town men were on a short strike Tuesday morning but finally went to work to settle the difficulty later. We are with the working men every time, and will handle the subject editorialy next week.

The town men were on a short strike Tuesday morning but finally went to work to settle the difficulty later. We are with the working men every time, and will handle the subject editorialy next week.

The town men were on a short strike lived since the war. The Odd Fellow lodge of that city came in a special car, and held services at the cemetery. Mr. Kenney served three years during the war in the 1st Mass. Light Battery, and was discharged as sergeant. Some of was discharged as sergeant. Some of his old comrades here attended his

In St. Malachy's church the services during holy week were conducted on Thursday and Friday mornings by Rev. A. J. Fitzgerald, and on Saturday mornthe Historical society and "the ladies of Cranford," with their many friends, on the occasion of that delightful enter- lone preached the sermon on the Passion and the ceremony of the veneration of the cross followed. The condition of iston, Me., this week where he has been church on account of the alterations and additions being made in the audibeen putting in, as we announced two weeks ago. The whistle is a great sucpository on Holy Thursday, but the Hunton. usual throng of worshippers was noticed Cobb.

Mr. Timothy Hurley, for many years a resident of Arlington, died about 12 Zoeller. o'clock Wednesday noon at his residence on Schouler court. The funeral T. Wood. took place on Friday, the obsequies being conducted in St. Malachy's church at two o'clock, by Rev. A. J. Fitzgerald.

The dates as scheduled are to be:
Wednesday, April 11, 2-5; Friday, 13th,
3-6; Saturday, 14th, 1-4; Monday, 16th,
3-6; Saturday, 17th, 1-3; Friday, 20th, 5-6;
mains to St. Paul's cemetery. The deto the same.

The dates as scheduled are to be:
Wednesday, April 11, 2-5; Friday, 13th,
3-6; Saturday, 14th, 1-3; Friday, 20th, 5-6;
Monday, 23rd, 3-4; Tuesday, 17th, 1-3; Friday, 24th, 1-5;
Wednesday, 25th, 2-6; Monday, 30th,
4-6; Wednesday, May 2, 1-2; Friday, 4th,
3-5; Tuesday, 8th, 4-5; Wednesday, 9th,
2-3; Thursday, 10th, 1-6. at two o'clock, by Rev. A. J. Fitzgerald.

At sunrise, the 19th, the ringing of bells will usher in the day's cele- there was formed what is to be known

The fire apparatus at the upper part bration. The school children will have as the Mystic Valley Bowling league, exercises in the Town hall at to o'clock, the same to be composed of the Old Belconsisting of fancy dancing and sing fry club of Lexington, Calumet club of ing, under the direction of Miss Alice Winchester, Medford club, 999th Artil-Homer and Mrs. Sarah M. Phelps, and lery of Charlestown, Jefferies Winter Mrs. Theresa M. Kidder will read. At club of East Boston and the Arlington 12 o'clock the bells will be rung. At Boat club. The league is to start with I o'clock the veteran firemen will pa- a candle pin tournament, the first game rade. The Somerville, Roxbury, Cam- to be played on Tuesday at the club bridge companies will participate house. This fall the league will fix a after which there will be a playout off schedule of games for the winter in reg-Marathon street. The bells will ring at ular bowling. The president is G. S. sunset, and at 8 o'clock, in Town hall, Littlefield of the Calumets, Winchester; Mr. E. W. McGlennan will give an il- secretary, A. M. Wheeler of the Arlinglustrated lecture, the subject to be 'Events of April 19, 1775."

The announced adjourned meeting of the A. V. F. A. was held on Monday evening in their hall, and was largely attended. Through the resignations of President Peirce and Treasurer Hill, it first winner will get $3 worth of bowling was necessary to elect again, and T. J. Donabue and Walter H. Peirce were A collation committee was chosen for the 19th. A letter from President Setstating that if nothing prevented be would be present and participate in the day's celebration. Second-asst. Foreman Haskell appointed the following: Pipeman, D. J. Sullivan, Denis Ahrarn; asst., W. J. Sweeney; on bar, W. H. Bradley, J. J. Murray; 2d coupling, D. Daley, B. Howard: 3d coupling, G. H. Peirce. W. Ilsley; coupling at engine, T. J. Donahue; flagman at stream, R. W. LeBaron. All details were completed for the 19th.

(Continued from page 1.)

members of the school will have parts, and the organ music will include "Prelude in F," by Frost, and "Prelude in C," by Lewis. The church will be decorated by Mr. W. W. Rawson. The table taks." Please note the change of public is cordially invited to attend day from Thursday to Wednesday, as both the services.

BAPTIST. There will be Easter services at the Baptist church both morning and evening. The morning service will be a baptismal service. The following is the program: Prelude, March, Chavet; Easter morning hymn, Calkin; baptismal chant, Wood; chant, Dominus regit me, Far-rant; anthem, Te Deum in E flat, Buck; resurrection hymn, Sullivan; postlude, Gloria in excellsis, Mozart.

The baptismal chant which will be sung was composed by the organist, Mr. W. E. Wood. Dr. Watson's morning subject is "The culmination of the gospel."

The following is the program for the evening service at 7.45 sharp:

Organ voluntary, march, Guilmant; anthem, Now very early in the morning, O. B. Brown; Easter hymn, St. Kevin, Sullivan; carol, Hark, the angels sweetly say, Schilling; anthem. Come, see the place where the Lord lay, H. W. Parker: carol, The heavens are resounding, Schilling; anthem, God that madest earth and heaven, Schnecker; carol, The world itself keeps Easter day. Buffinton; victory hymn, Palestrina; post-

Dr. Watson's evening subject will be: 'Is it the essential fact?" At the morning baptismal service the music will be rendered by the church quartette. The Rev. Dr. Watson well says in the in the evening the more complete musibert Kidder, D. J. Buckley is captain and Fred R. Cook catcher.

abstract of his sermon we publish in this issue that "Christ began calling his deciples one by one and has continuous quartette and large shorts. his deciples one by one and has contin- quartette and large chorus. All are

UNIVERSALIST.

At 10 a. m., communion service, At 10.45 a. m., preaching service, at which a number will be admitted to the fellowship of the church. Sermon by the pastor, Rev. Harry Fay Fister. Music by the quartette choir-Miss Carrie Higgins, soprano; Mrs. George O. Russell, alto; G. W. Fowle, tenor; J. O. Holt, baso; Mrs. C. E. Stevens, Mr. James W. Kenney, one of the organist and director. The quartette early settlers in this town, was buried in will be assisted by a chorus and Miss Mt. Pleasant cemetery on Sunday after- Mable Foster, violinist. The following

Voluntary, Eastern morn, Guilmant;

At 12 noon, Sunday school; at 7 p. m.; choir will be assisted by Mr. A. A. Roberts, who will sing "Hills of God" (Nevins) and "Trusting I call." The Sunday school will also be present and sing four songs. There will be a few recitations by the children. All are invited to these services.

ARLINGTON BOAT CLUB.

The house candle pin bowling tourna ment was formed last Saturday evening,

No 2: J. A. Wheeler, Bird, Shirley, No. 3: W. Homer, Brooks, Towne,

Moore. No. 4: Whittemore, Reed, Wilmot,

No. 5: H. Wheeler, Gray, E. Wood, No. 6: Durgin, J. Puffer, Jordan, Ben-

The dates as scheduled are to be

Wednesday evening at the club room ton; treasurer, Mr. Orne of the 999th Artillery, Charlestown.

There will be a roll-off on the evening of the 19th, eight highest three consecutive strings to qualify. The list will close at 6 p. m. on that day. The tickets, the second, $2 worth of tickets.

Director Ellis G. Wood desires all candidates for the base ball team to report to him before May 1.

The following committees for 1900 have been chosen:

House, C. B. Devereaux and Walter Stimpson Auditing, W. H. N. Francis and J. T.

Library, A. J. Wellington. Entertainment, W. H. N. Francis, A Wellington, Ernest L. Rankin and J

Cigars, W. H. Kimball. Billiards, H. E. Stratton and Ernes Hesseltine.

Six names are on the list for the pool tournament and three for the billiard tournament

WOMAN'S CLUB.

The next meeting of the Arlington Woman's will occur Wednesday, Apri Mrs. Rufus Hamilton Gilmore will give a paper on "Some diaries and Thursday is a holiday.

ST. JOHN'S CHURCH NOTES.

The choir of St. John's church, eight men and six women, is to be vested to-

St. John's church was beautifully decorated with palms last Sunday, Palm

The annual meeting of St. John's parish will be held in the church on Easter Monday evening at 7.30.

Each child will receive a potted plant holy baptism will be administered to several children.

will be: Holy communion at 7.20; holy communion, morning prayer and sermon at 10.30: children's Easter festival and carol service at 4. Miss Clara Johnson will play the violin obligato to the anthem and assist in the service at St. John's church tomorrow. Mrs. White of Boston will be soprano soloist. Mr. Harold Ring will also sing with the choir.

The services at St John's tomorrow

The Rev. James Yeames' lecture on 'The romance of the dictionary' was much enjoyed by the St. John's Young Men's society last Thursday evening. Mr. Charles LeBuff, vice-president, pre sided. Mr. Yeames gave a sketch of the sources and history of the English language, and then proceeded to give illustrations of the poetical and picturesque in words and also of the history crystallized in them. He promised a second lecture on the same theme. The society voted to purchase six music hymnals as an Easter gift to the church.

The quiet morning for women on Friday last was a very beautiful and helpful service. Inspiring and impressive addresses were given by the Rev. Dr. Shinn of Newton. The order was as follows: At 9, the litany-address on "Carrying religion into the home," followed by interval for meditation and prayer; at 10, the penitential office-address on "Why some homes are not happy," quiet interval; at II, the antecommunion service-address on "Hallowed associations with the home," quiet interval; at 12, the holy com munion. About 50 women were present, Vesper service. At this service the the attendance increasing with each each hour.

We give in another column the full order of music for the Easter servcies at St. John's. It will be interesting to observe that the offertory anthem was composed by Mr. F. N. Shackley to words taken from an Easter poem written by Rev. James Yeames. It was first sung at the Church of the Ascension, Boston, Easter 1897. The portion of the poem which furnishes the theme for the anthem runs as follows:

I knelt beside a grassy mound,
And read, thro' mist of bitter tears,
The story of a grief profound,
The name, the date, the brief, bright years;
And thought that ne'er again could be
Such days of light and joy and love
As once made life a very heaven,
But now the bonds of love are riven,
And light has fled, and joy is dead!
What solace to such grief is given?

And then, as though one spake to me.
I heard a voice from heav'n above:
"Look up! The Lord of life and love
To sorrowing hearts sweet comfort gives,
Weep not! Whoe'er in me believes.
Though he hath died, forever lives,
Jesus hath broke his mortal prison,
He is not here! The Christ is risen!"

As eaglet, 'neath the broading wing, surests from its shell and soars on high;
As breaks from cerements dark that cling, he gorgeous, painted butterfly,—
So from the prison-bouse of death,
as came the Christ, so comes the train
Of those who, yielding up their breath.

SCIENTIFIC

Pruning of Trees and Shrubs.

H. L. FROST & CO.

SEND ALL MAIL, ARLINGTON.

TELEPHONE, 21-4.

A. BOWMAN,

Ladies' and Gent's TAILOR,

487 Mass. ave., Arlington.

ALTERING, CLEANING, DIEING, PRESSING

WM. DDISON GREENE, M. D Monument View Store, 688 Mass. Ave., Arlington.

OFFICE HOURS: 8-10; A.M. 2-4 6-8. C.W.

3 years in the hacking business, is still at the 10 MILL STREET, ARLINGTON.

LEONARD H. PAYNE

GRADUATE OF DARTMOUTH '96 HARVARD POST GRADUATE '97

PROPRIETOR

A full line of DAVID CLARK,

Choice Family Groceries

at Boston prices. Don't go to Boston to make your purchases.

tubber-tired carriages for funerals, weddings, and evening parties. Also a wagonette for deasure parties. Tel connection 12augly

FREE!

FREE!

A Beautiful Oak Rocker given absolutely free.

Call at our store and procure a special cash offer card. Have the amount of every cash sale punched from the card, and when your purchases amount to $20.00 return the card to us and we will deliver at your home a splendid oak rocker entirely free of charge. The retail price of the rocker is $4.00 and can be seen in our show window.

I. E. ROBINSON & CO.,

POST OFFICE BLOCK, 633 Massachusetts Avenue

Each child will receive a potted plant at the afternoon service at St John's church tomorrow. The sacrament of holy baptism will be administered to

For a good suit of clothes and a guaranteed fit, go to

J. J. LOFTUS. the leading tailor

Sherburne Building, Arlington

Repairing Neatly Done. Ladies' tailoring.

Still at the Top

Fifteen years before the public proves that we are here to stay; that we are still with you, and still have the interests of our patrons at heart. We may be found at all times at the old stand, ready to serve you as best we can with a good variety of Ocean, Lake and River Fish. Telephone 48-3.

Webber & Son,

Electrical Supplies. R. W. LeBARON, Electrician and Contractor.

Electric Flat Irons, Electric Stoves, Curling Iron Heaters, Incandescent Lamps, all styles and candle power. Electric Lights, Bells and Telephones installed. Medical Batteries sold and repaired.

Telephone Connection. 478 Mass. Avenue,

Arlington, Mass

Stores, 12 and 14 Pleasant Street,

JAMES O. HOLT, Groceries Provisions.

Agnelus Flour, Revere Coffee, Hatchet Brand Canned Goods, Strafford Creamery Butter, Pure Bottled Cream. Our meats are carefully selected. Our vegetables are grown on Arlington farms. For your patronage we will try to please and guarantee all goods as represented.

KNOWLES & MARDEN, PLUMBERS.

Furnaces, Ranges, Steam,

Hot Water, and Gas Fixtures, and Kitchen Furnishings

483 MASS. AVENUE.

Boston and Maine R. K. Southern Division Winter arrangement. In effect Oct. 2, 1899.

TRAINS TO BOSTON.

Arlington Heights—5.30, 6.05, 6.35, 7.04, 7.34, 8.04 8.36, 8.53, 10.07, 11.19, A.M. 12.18, 1.01, 2.18, 3.54 4.23, 4.46, 5.19, 6.47, 8.18, 9.18, 10.18 P.M. Sun day, 9.24, A.M., 12.58, 2.23, 3.11, 4.35, 6.15, 8.25 attle=5.32, 6.08, 6.38, 7.06, 8.06, 8.56, 10.09, 11.21 A. N., 12.20, 1.03, 2.20, 3.56, 4.25, 4.48, 5.21, 6.56, 8.20, 9.20, 10.20, P. M. Sundays, 9.27, A. N. 1.06, 2.25, 3.14, 4.38, 6.18, 8.28, P. M.

Arlington -5.35, 6.12, 6.42, *7.09, 7.12, *7.39, 7.42 8.01, *6.09, 8.17, *8.40, 9.00, 10.12, 11.24, A. M 12.23, 1.06, 2.23, 3.59, 4.28, 4.51, 5.24, 5.46, 6.20, *6.53, 6.56, 7.15, 8.23, 9.23, 10.23, p. M. Sundays 9.30, A. M., 1.03, 2.28, 3.17, 4.40, 6.21, 8.31, p. M. Lake Street - 5.88, 6.15, 6.45, 7.15, 7.45, 8.03, 8.20 9.03, 10.15, 11.26, a.m., 12.25, 1.08, 2.25, 4.01 4.26, 4.80, 5.26, 5.49, 6.23, 6.59, 7.18, 8.25, 9.25, 10.25, P.M. Sundays, 9.33, a. M. 1.05, 2.31, 3.20, 4.43, 6.24, 8.34, P. M.

TRAINS FROM BOSTON.

Arlington Heights—6.25, 7.17, 8.17, 9.17, 10.17 11.17, M., 12.17, 1.47, 2.47, 3.47, 4.17, 4.47, 5.17 5.47, 6.17, 7.10, 7.50, 9.15, 10.20, 11.30, F. M. Su a days, 9.15, A. M., 12.50, 2.00, 4.30, 6.00, 7.17, 9.45

Brattle—6.25, 7.17, 8.17, 9.17, 11.17, A. M., 12.17, 1.47, 2.47, 4.17, 5.17, 5.32, 6.17, 7.10, 7.50, 9.15, 10.20, 11.30, P. M. Sundays, 9.15, A. M., 12.70, A. Thington, 6.95, 8.49, 7.45, P. M.

Arlington = 6.25, 6.42, 7.01, *7.17, 7.31, 7.46, 8.17, 9.17, 10.17, 11.17, A., M., 12.17, 1.47, 2.47, 3.47, *4.47, 5.04, *5.17, 5.32, *5.47, 5.57, 6.04, *6.1, 6.34, 7.10, 7.50, 9.15, 10.20, 11.30, P. M. Sundays, 9.15, A. M., 12.50, 2.00, 4.30, 6.00, 7.15, 9.45, P. M.

Lake Street—6.25, 8.17, 9.17, 10.17, 11.17 A.M. 12.17,1.47, 2.47, 4.17, 5.04, 5.32, 5.55, 6.04, 6.34, 7.10, 7.50, 9.15, 10.20, 11.30, P. M. Sundays, 5.15, A. 7.50, 9.15, 10.20, 11.30, P. M. Sundays. M., 12.50, 2.00, 4.30, 6.00, 7.15, 9.45, P. M.

D. J. FLANDERS, General Pass, and Ticket Agent

No Glasses

Is certainly better than to have the wronkind; for by using those which are unsuitable new errors of refraction are caused. But withe right glasses, original, progressive or a quired errors are corrected and pass away as they had never existed. I take great pains will my corrections and my fittings, and make a charge for thorough examinations.

FRED W. DERBY. Refracting Optician,

458 Massachusetts Avenue

DR. RING'S Sanatorium,

Arlington Heights, Mass Eight miles from Boston

For Nervous and Chronic Diseases i both sexes (mental cases not received Location high, healthful, restful and in vigorating. Especial attention gives to Electro and Hydro therapentics Telephone 5-2 Arlington. Physician-Allan Mott Ring, M.D., Arthur Halian Ring, M. D., Barbara Taylor Ring. A D. Illustrated book let sent on applic.

MARK SULLIVAN. PRACTICAL HORSE SHOER.

HAND-MADE STEEL SHOES A SPECIALTY

Mill Street Shoeing Forge ARLINGTON

CHAS. GOTT Carriage Builder,

450 Mass. Ave.,

ARLINGTON, MASS

Jobbing in all branches.

Fine Painting a Specialty.

ALEXANDER BEATON.

Contractor

Builder,

79 Hibbert street,

305 Broadway,

Arlington Heights.

The Bendix School of Music. Piano, Violin Guitar, Clarionet,

Personal instruction by William Bendix The Bendix Orchestra Music furnished for dances, etc. Studio, 2 Park terrace, Arlington

J. C. WAAGE. House, Sign, and > Decorative Painting.

JOBBING PROMPTLY ATTENDED TO

28 Moore Place, Arlington

TELEPHONE, 149-2 ARLINGTON. JOB PRINTING OF ALL KINDS AT LOW RATES

ARLINGTON HEIGHTS.

General Munroe is out again after an

Mr. H. H. Kendall arrives home today from his trip south.

On Thursday evening the Literary union observed its Kipling hour. Mr. Jernegan is to start on his annual business trip west, some time in May.

Monday from N. H. where they have been visiting for a week

The Sunshine club met on Wednesday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. Edwin Lloyd on Park avenue.

The Womans' Benevolent Society met with Mrs. Worthington, Tanager street, on Wednesday afternoon,

The Sunshine club will have a table at the Park avenue Congregational church fair, dated for Tuesday, April 24.

That wealth of bud and bloom to be seen in one of the windows of our post office is from W. W. Rawson's green-

Mrs.George Tewksbury entertained on Tuesday and Wednesday George Stoddard and his mother, who reside in Foxboro.

Sunday services at the Baptist church will be: Preaching at 10.45 a. m., Sunday school at 12, and evening service who have been the guests of Mrs. Erandenberg of Westminster ave., returned to their home in Brooklyn, N. Y. last Monday.

Station-agent McKenzie has had official orders to have the tenants vacate the house which the B. & M. R. R. bought from W. H. Richardson, now teceased, some two years ago.

ng of the Baptist church was held at the chapel under the direction of the young people, who will lead one evenwas the leader.

Preparations are nearly completed for the fair which is to be held in Park evening of April 24th. Supper will be erved from 6 to 8 and an entertainment

On Sunday evening next will be held he Easter concert in connection with ed anniversary of the Sunday school of the Baptist church, to be held at the tocks, which must be blasted in order enapel. A varied and interesting prograin has been arranged.

Park avenue Congregational church crushed, and then they go to make up fair had a successful meeting on Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Styles at her residence on the corner of Montague street and Westminster avenue.

The Rev. and Mrs. Harry Spenser Baker spent a few days with Mrs. H. W. country, and all along the way it is be-Brandenburg of Westminster avenue, a ing dotted with pleasant cottages. The e sister of Mrs. Baker. Mr. Baker re- are 15 families now living within five or fully. "I acted under your instrucsigned his patorate at Falmouth, N. S. and is on his way to Brooklyn, N. V.

eve. have moved to Hibbert st. East Lexington. Their little boy Alexander is still in a precarious condition, being confined to a stretcher from a trouble Kimball, with his force of men, is conof his hip joint which they fear may be stantly busy with the work he has in the Baptist chapel had the pleasure of in an intelligent and faithful way. istening to the Rev. H. Speucer Baker His sermon was one of are worth. He sweetly rendered the solo, "We shall know him by the prints in his hand.

Postmaster Blanchard has secured another mail out from the Heights. There to Mr. Blanchard.

The two brush fires on the meadows us all that it is so. or near them, on Sunday, created no little excitement. There were a hundred or more of our people on hand to do valiant service in exanguishing the The fire department was called out, and soon got the better of the fire.

Mr. A. G. McDonald, 1261 Mass. avenue, builder and contractor, is erecting a cottage of seven rooms, with bath room, all with modern conveniences, on Peirce street. We had a pleasant chat with Mr. McDonald on Wednesday morning, from whom we learned that business in his line promises well for the summer. Mr. McDonald as a builder and contractor is known far and wide. There is little or nothing in the line of architecture that he does not understand.

home with Mrs. Dr. Babbit, died on lected his present vine and fig tree Saturday of grippe and pneumonia, at under which he can appropriate to himthe age of 23 years. The funeral of the self the best that nature has to givedeceased was held on Tuesday afternoon peculiarly fortunate place for one whose at the house on Park avenue. The Rev. life work is to instruct men and women Mr. Merry, pastor of the Union square in all that is so attractive and inspiring Baptist church, Somerville, and the in God's material creation. Indeed, all Rev. Walter Calley of the Bowdoin Arlington is delightfully picturesque. square Baptist church, Boston, offici- Wherever one may go within its limits ated. Miss Johnson was a young lady he finds himself involuntarily exclaimmuch beloved by her many friends, who ing: this is the most charming spot of deeply mourn her death.

The Arlington Heights Baptist Sunof Mr. B. F. Cann, is in a promising and ideal environments. flourishing condition. The school already numbers 146, with an average attendance of somewhere about 100. Last Sunday there were 104 pupils present. The Arlington Heights Baptist church and Sunday school well illustrate what strength there is in unity. Success will always come when every man and woman with the children are willing to join hands with the pastor in earnest, sincere debate and was decided by the judges in the affirmative. A. W. Lorimer was presiding officer. Some members of his church were present and enjoyed the exercises intensely.

On Wednesday evening the Knowles Rhetorical Society of Newton Theological Institute, held a debate in their chapel at Newton. Subject, resolved, 'That our municipalities should own and operate their systems of lighting AT THIS OFFICE and transportation. It was a spirited -New York Press.

The Easter music at the Park avenue Congregational church tomorrow will be rendered by the following double quartette: Miss Grace Lockhart and Miss Fiske, sopranos; Miss Hattie Wescott Mr. and Mrs. Hewiston returned on and Miss Mabelle Bennett, contraites; Ralph Taylor and Walter Bean, tenors; G. H. Averill and J. Hines, bassos; Miss Edith Mann, organist and director. The program is:

Great is the Lord, Read; Awake, awake, 'tis Easter morn, Truette; The day of resurrection, Brackett; Sweetly the birds are singing, Hosmer.

The Young People's Auxiliary of the Baptist church met at Mrs. Streeter's, 49 Claremont avenue, on Tuesday evening, where they gave quite an extensive program as follows:

Scripture reading, Mr. A. W. Lorimer; prayer, C. L. Snow, Newton: minutes of previous meeting were read; piano solo. Miss Jukes; reading, Miss Flora Dean, Everett; piano solo, Miss Easton, Cambridge; sunflower chorus: Misses Gertie Finlay, Sadie Campbell, Mabel Beddoes, Grace Baxter, Winnie Harris, Flossie Streeter, Clara Cann, Lillian Jukes and Messrs. Hines, Schuhmacher, The Rev. and Mrs. H. Spenser Baker Johnson, Woburn; autoharp solo, Mr. Snow; duet, Miss Finlay and Mr. Hines; reading, Miss Dean; trio, autoharp and harmonicas, Messrs Snow, Harding and Philbrook, Newton: reading Miss Johnson; solo, The old sexton, Mr. Hines; piano solo, Miss Cann; duet with flute accompaniment, Messrs. Snow, Harding and Philbrook

A collation was served. There was a large attendance, and the enterainment On Friday evening the prayer meetmay well be called a success.

We made mention in an incidental ing each mouth. Merrick I.. Streeter way last week of the improvement which is being made on Forest street. On Wednesday we took a more thorough survey of the work, so that we are now wenue church on the afternoon and better prepared to give our readers a more complete idea of what is being done in that locality by Highway Commissioner Kimball for that thoroughfare. On either side of Forest street there are long stretches of embedded These rocks after being blown out and The ladies interested in the proposed broken into pieces of suitable size, are road-bed and to build walls along the sides of the highway. As we said in the last issue of the Enterprise, Forest street runs through a delightful bit of country, and all along the way it is beten minutes' walk of Park avenue. Forest street, when its improvements Mr. Johnson's family from Claremont are completed, will run under the railroad crossing, which will make safe the travelling public at that point. Mt. charge, and he is doing his work, as Last Sabbath evening the people at Arlington well knows and appreciates

"Now you see it, and now you don't," was the game in most of our busines houses on Friday afternoon of last week We have reference to that simple ar has been no mail heretofore leaving the rangement by which the ten cent bit Heights from 12 o'clock noon until 6.30. disappeared so mysteriously and as mys The extra mail goes out at 2.18 p. m., a teriously made its appearance again. great convenience to all of us. Thanks Say what we may, we are nothing bu grown boys after all, and fortunate for

We took in the other morning tha charming picturesque view had from the home of the Rev. James Yeames on Devereaux street. The sun was shedding its most cheerful light on all around, while the skies were the bluest, with a kindly atmosphere telling of the springtime, when we looked upon and appreciated to the full the varied scenery. Right in front of us were bewitch ing stretches of Spy pond, with its inviting island, while a little beyond and slightly to the left is to be seen Tufts college and its adjacent buildings, with portions of Somerville and North Cambridge within one's vision, all combining in making up a unique picture. The Rev. Mr. Yeames must have had in Miss Sadie Johnson, who has had her mind the English home when he seall. No wonder that the stranger comes to make his home with us, for as a locality we are not surpassed in all that day school, under the superintendency makes up whatever may be termed Process Butter.

Here is a description of "process butter:" "This butter is made from old. rancid and useless dairy butter, purchased from country store keepers in the states farther west and shipped in old barrels, tobacco pails, shoe boxes etc., which appetizing mess is put through a process of boiling and renovating to remove the nauseating odors and through other treatments which have brought it under the ban of the pure food laws of several states, after which it is worked over in sweet buttermilk, which gives it temporarily a fairly clean flavor." See that this stuff is not worked off on you by your grocer. The "green" woods are full of it.

BABY'S WAY

Everything's in the baby's way Whenever she wants to run and play; It's either a chair, a table or door Or clutter all over the playroom floor. When she starts to run, she gets a bump, And we have to kiss her forehead plump And start her off with a smile to play And clear things out of the baby's way.

Everything's in the baby's way She wants her do, and she wants her say: She wants to do the things which are wrong And her will each day it grows more strong, And we try so gently to guide her right And ask the Father of all for light But to her who wants her do and say Everything seems in the baby's way

From morning till night, so babies say, And so they are cross and fretful, too, And do the things they oughtn't to do, And theipways are not our ways at all, And so they must cry and scold and fall, But we turn a hundred times a day ile because it is baby's "way."

—Joe Cone in National Magazine.

poronononononononononono

ONE OF THE CITY'S OWN

How a Young Man Came to Go to the South African War.

ŠONONONONONONONONONONONONO "Mr. Redbolt is to go to the governor at once. Mr. Redbolt strode briskly across the room. A moment later he was in the private office. Young Mr. Dewhurst, who had managed the business since the death of his father, gave him a furtive look as he entered and then turned hurriedly to a bundle of correspondence by his side and selected a letter with an air of malicious satisfaction. The balk was opened by Mr. Dewhurst unfolding a cantankerous complaint from an unimportant customer. It was the merest trifle and quite unworthy of the occasion. Nevertheless Joe Redbolt was by no means surprised at the tone adopted. For some time past the smallest opportunities had been seized for fault finding, and he knew by instinct that the climax had

"How do you account for this blunder?" asked Mr. Dewhurst suspicious-

His clerk gave a simple, straightforward explanation, which, to a reasonable man, would have been sufficient. But Mr. Dewhurst was not in a reasonable humor.

"It appears to me, then, that you are not in any way to blame, Mr. Redbolt,' he said cynically. "I think not."

"You never make a mistake?"

"Not very often." 'Who is to blame, then?"

There was a moment's silence, and the two men looked into one another's

You are, sir," said Redbolt respecttions.

This appeared to give the unworthy little tyrant his opportunity.

"You are more than half imperti nent," he said roughly. "I give you my word that I don't intend to be so," said Redbolt, with perfect good temper. "Perhaps not, but I'm tired of it. You forget your proper position and have crossed my will in several ways." Mr. Redbolt colored rather painfully, and his principal continued, with a smile of splteful triumph:

"You understand what I allude to?" The clerk bowed slightly.

"Then I think you had better look about for another situation.

last Monday?" inquired Joe Redbolt in a perfectly even, matter of fact voice. "Eh-yes," said Mr. Dewhurst. "But I won't ask you to continue your work

With that he pushed across the table a little pile of coins which had been counted out already, clearly showing that he intended from the first to make use of the opportunity.

For the first time Joe Redbolt looked angry. It was adding insult to injury to send him away at a moment's no tice, as if he had disgraced himself.

It was the more outrageous because he was a distant relation of the Dewhursts by blood. The two young iten had been for a short time at school together. They had entered the firm together, and Redbolt had worked his way up by sheer ability under old Mr. Dewhurst's eye to a responsible posi-

Naturally they knew the same people and to some extent visited the same houses, and it was in this way that Dewhurst's inherent jealousy had ripened into positive rancor, for that there was a member of the fair sex at the bottom of it is almost obvious.

The innocent cause of the trouble little dreaming of the mischief she was creating, had thoroughly enjoyed the rivalry of the two men, as every daughter of Eve is bound to do, and she had not made it quite clear which of them was to be favored, which is certainly a woman's privilege.

But Joe Redbolt was generally believed to be the lucky man, and Dewhurst had vented his unmanly spite by a thousand annoyances in the office. However, in love, as in war, it is the unexpected that often happens. Joe Redbolt proposed and was refused point blank. Now, most men, when they see a dangerous rival put out of court, bury their animosity and even become gen-But this was not the case with Fred Dewhurst. Petty annoyances developed rapidly into daily insults until the morning, as we have seen, he had found an excuse to cut his former schoolfellow adrift. Joe Redbolt picked up the pile of coins, counted them deliberately and put them in his pocket.

'Now, Fred Dewhurst," he said buskily, "we are no longer master and man, so that I can say what I think." Dewhurst looked rather alarmed How I envy you!-Boston Transcript.

and drew a small silver bell near to his "Oh, don't be frightened." said loe, with a smile of amusement. "I'm not going to thrash you! It wouldn't be fair to hit a man of your size."

Mr. Dewhurst tried to sneer, but only looked mightily relieved.

"I want to tell you what I think of you." said Joe.

"Go on," said Dewhurst, with a grin, "Seeing that you've had the worst of it all through, I suppose I mustn't mind a few spiteful words." "I want to tell you that you're the meanest cad I've met, and if that poor girl marries you I'm sorry for her!"

"In fact, you're so sorry," said Dewhurst, "that you'd even marry ber yourself. Capital! And, now you've said enough, I'll wish you good morn-

With a mighty effort of self restraint. Joe pulled himself together, and, resisting the impulse to knock him down, swung out of the room.

He had lost everything-the girl he loved and the means of earning his living. He was alone in the world, with no prospect but that of commencing life again in some counting house, and Then suddenly he remembered. Only two nights before he had attended drill at the headquarters of his vol-unteer corps. The men had been asked which of them wished to join the C I. V. for the front. He thought of the glow that had burned through his veins, how he had longed to offer himself and had only been prevented by his feeling of obligation to his old friend's business. Now he was free!

That settled it. Old England was in need of help from men such as he. He was as sound as a bell in wind and limb. He had done his turn at volunteering and could shoot more than a little.

Within half an hour his name was entered as one of those who were ready for service at the front, and he was or dered to go before the doctor.

That gentleman laughed at him. "If we get 1,400 men as fit as you are," he said, "we shall do well!"

Having successfully passed all the tests and been duly enrolled as one of the City of London Imperial volunteer corps, he felt slightly easier in his mind.

It must be confessed that he was in that pleasant frame of mind when a man firmly believes that there is nobody to grieve over him and finds a morbid pleasure in the prospect of a soldier's grave.

Most of us get these attacks of despondency some time in our lives, and to tell the truth, it lasted a very short time with Joe Redbolt. After a few days of hard drill he had lost sight of the possibility of getting killed and was looking forward to making things as unpleasant as possible for the ene

At last the final moment came. He had attended the services at St. Paul's in anthem until he and sung the . was hoarse. He had been slapped on the back by hundreds of warm hearted but heavy banded citizens. He had even fought his way successfully through a mob of enthusiastic patriots all the way from Bunhill row to Nine Elins, where he was one of the first to arrive.

There stood the train waiting to take them to Southampton. There, too, stood the long suffering band, and every minute groups of breathless, ex cited men in khaki, who had also fought their way through the crowd, rushed on to the platform. Of course it was all over. There was nothing to be done but get into the train and say goodby to old London for months-perhaps forever. Once more a gloomy sense of loneliness came upon him. Everybody else had a chum or a relative to see him off. And thenan angel came from heaven? Not quite. But an earthly angel appeared in the shape of a slight form in a long, black cloak, who was pushing her way feverishly through the crowd, eagerly scanning the faces of all the "gentle men in khaki."

Then their eyes met, and in a minute he was clasping in his arms the girl who had refused him a month before and in whose presence he had always been so shy that he had never yet dared to press her hand.

How had it happened? There seemed no need, and certainly no time, for explanations. Why had he accepted her foolish "no" when she never meant him to? She always thought he would speak to her again. Why had he been so awkward and brusque in the way he had asked her? He had given her no chance to say "yes." And it was only last night she had learned what had happened-from Dewhurst's own lips-and she had cried all night at the mischief she had done, and would he forgive ber? And did be still care for her a little bit?

"Take your seats, there!" roared an officer.

It was not the time for mock modesty. With her arms around his neck and tear stained cheeks pressed to his, she promised to wait for him.

"God bless you!" he whispered. "And bring you back to me," she an swered.

And then, with cheers and whistles and the band playing "God Save the Queen" and men shouting and laugh ing and crying, the train moved out, and the City's Own was en route for the front .- Answers.

Gambling.

Mrs. Green-They do say that Mr. Slyder gambles. Isn't it awful? Mrs. Gray-I should say it was. Why, it's almost as bad as stealing. If he loses, he robs his family. Mrs. Green-At any rate, it is terribly wicked. By the way, I forgot to tell you I won the first prize at the whist tournament last night, a beautiful silver cup.

Mrs. Gray-Oh, you lucky woman!

wins, he robs some other man; if he

Enterprise $1 ADVERTISE.

SPRING'S RETURN.

Warmed into life by the south wind's breath, The flowers begin to wake— The marigoid by marshy streams, Hepaticas in the brake.

Bold hellebore their banners raise To greet the sun on high.
While the cabbage-flower, an hermit old.
Looks from his cave hard by.

Methinks I hear the mellow honek As the wild-geese cleave the sky. On a pilgrimage to some wild-meor, Where the high reeds mean and sigh.

The alders by the brook side
Their russet tassels shake,
And the ferns their spiral sprays unfull 4 in glen and mossy brake.

The crows are holding meetings In the pines across the way.
While the bell-note of the wood-thrush Peals forth his liquid lay

The lone bark of the forest dog is heard behind the hill, nd from every swamp and meadow The hylode's flutelet shrill. * W. H. F.

more readers than any other book written by a living author. In Mr. Sheldon's recent experiment with the Topeka Capital he was followed by hundreds of thousands of readers. Beginning Monday, April 16, his Daily Globe story "Edward Blake, college student," is certain to arouse a widespread interest, and every one who wishes to read it without missing a chapter should ask his newsdealer to deliver the Globe daily, beginning with the issue of Monday. The Sunday Grote is making an unusually strong appeal to the chilhen with a toy theatre in colors and a ine special defaitment filled with bright things for the little ones. Every

The pretty girl in Perham's drug store, is receiving the attention of many of our young men. It may be said of the young lady in question, that she is not only pretty. Lut is possessed of that becoming modesty that renders her specially attractive. Call and see her. she will look at you with wistful gaze, though she will not speak to you in andible language your hair from falling out by using

STOP

Whittemore's Quinine Hair Tonic,

Subscribe for the $1 a year.

J. H. HARTWELL

Undertakers and Embalmers.

EGBERT E. STACPOLE,

TEACHER OF BANJO, MANDOLIN AND GUITAR. Correct Instruments carefully selected

40 Mystic Street, - Arlington, Mass.

Dr. G. W. Yale, DENTIST.

At pariors, 14-16 Post-office Buildig. ARLINGTON.

E. PRICE, Blacksmith and

Horseshoeing and Jobbing promptly attended

Belmont Mass

CREPE PAPER,

In Fancy and Solid Colors, at

Not far from 20,000,000 copies of Rev. Charles M. Sheldon's book, "In His Steps," have been sold, and it has had parent will find the Sunday Globe to be

Enterprise.

& SON..

edford st

for pupils without extra charge

Open daily, also Tuesday, Thursday, and Satur day evenings

Wheelwright,

Carriage and Sign Paint-

Fred Reid's News Depot.

POST OFFICE BLOCK.

a very acceptable gift to the children.